OVERVIEW

Annual Report 2022 | 2023

Our year was so arduous and demanding for all that not everyone in the country was able to weather it with success. Loss of employment, hardship in procurement of necessary supplies and food, fast dwindling medical facilities and difficulties caused by power interruptions, were causes for the disruptions in the normal work-life rhythm. So many professionals and other members of the workforce were seeking to relocate in other countries. No less than 845,000 passports were issued during the year.

CPM Sri Lanka like everyone else felt all the tremors and were shaken by them. While they found difficulties delivering quality opportunities for the members, they continued to strive to provide meaningful opportunities for them. This year CPM Sri Lanka was able to organise seven major events in addition to many webinars. Since they were now in new premises, their recurrent expenses increased.

They now had to provide for rent, utilities, maintenance and for furniture and security. While income avenues were closing up, expenditure was rising. Yet CPM Sri Lanka with prudent management and careful accounting was able to reach a target of Rs.38,927,806/- which is an increase of Rs.13,634,800/- over the previous year. Several factors can be attributed to this. Members were pleased with the programmes arranged. this year and they paid to attend them. The staff exercised rigorous cost-cutting measures and did not outsource any items except the technical input to programmes. Staff worked at full capacity to complete all projects on time. Because of their enthusiasm, and their willingness, there was so much goodwill shown towards CPM Sri Lanka. Suppliers were willing to provide goods and services at minimum prices. Members were willing to settle all their fees.

Thus, even though the difficulties and disruptions were everywhere CPM Sri Lanka faced them differently, with equanimity, composure, and imperturbability.

All our activities have impinged and focused on future development. For example, we had a deliberately intention for expansion, to accelerate through adaptation and despite turbulence to continue to thrive.

As you will notice we continued to organize our normal programs. Our international management conference has now gone on for ten years continuously. Our awards have gone on for two years. Every year the council has been able to build on and improve the events. With there results these events take a life of their own developing in a unique manner to provide more satisfaction to participants. Similarly, our programs Evening for Managers have from small beginnings blossomed into an interactive sessions where an expert focuses on current and relevant information which enables our members to renew themselves professionally to remain in the leading edge of things.

About Us

In a short span of 14 years, The Institute of Chartered Professional Managers of Sri Lanka (CPM Sri Lanka) has passed many milestones and has won the hearts of over 3,000 in total members from every profession. CPM Sri Lanka continues to arrange and execute programmes of every sort both for members as well as for the business community. These are eagerly looked forward to because they bring the latest and the most updated information to the manager. CPM Sri Lanka is recognized internationally and is an active member of the Association of Management Development Institutions in South Asia (AMDISA).

While the country is in the throes of financial difficulty and the impact of Covid-19 Pandemic, CPM Sri Lanka has been servicing its members with regularity and with significance. While most organizations found it difficult to overcome hardships and went downstream with financial hassles, we held our ground in the present situation.

Every year the Institute designs new programs to attract members and corporates and to be relevant to members. Last year we launched three programs 'CPM Best Management Practices Company Awards', 'CPM Management Research Forum; Industry Based Case Analysis' and 'CPM Colour Flash; an All-Island Children's Art Competition'. All these programs were well received, and we have been encouraged by the responses to continue them in the future.

Focusing on the development of the Management Profession in Sri Lanka, the Institute conducts programmes in Management & Entrepreneurship and executive management development programs, knowledge sharing sessions, management research forums, international management conferences, publication of bi-annual management journals, SME development programs, and organizing various other networking events for its members and corporate customers. CPM Sri Lanka is recognized internationally and is an active member of the Association of Management Development Institutions in South Asia.

Last year was very special for the Institute. Overcoming every difficulty in the Country-chaos caused by financial turbulence and the unstable political situation, your Institute was able to go ahead with stabilizing itself by moving to new premises at No. 11, Melbourne Avenue, Colombo 04, which helped us organize more and more new projects and activities.

Vision

To achieve excellence in Professional Management and be the leading organization for Professional Managers in Sri Lanka.

Mission

To promote the highest standards in Professional Management through excellence in ethics, governance and innovation.

Objectives

To innovate, lead and sustain quality in Professional Management through integrity and accountability.

To facilitate networking and knowledge sharing among professionals at national and international levels.

To promote the study of management and to encourage research into the best means and methods of applying the principles and techniques of management.

Declaration of Intent

Creating a culture of unity of diverse Professions through Best Management Practices for an Integrated Workplace

Overview of the FOUNDER AND PRESIDENT

During the past year CPM Sri Lanka as the leading professional Management body in Sri Lanka Profession been able to introduce several programmes to meet the needs of professional managers. However, we are happy to note the many measures taken by the government including the support received from the International Monetary Fund has improved the crisis faced and now the hard and arduous task to be met by professionals of all professions indeed.

Our activities at CPM Sri Lanka have been expanded making use of the benefit of the changes. We have expanded the use of zoom webinars to hybrid system and increased the physical or face-to-face events. We have been able to conduct satisfactorily some of our programs at hotels. We also use our new premises at Melbourne Avenue, Colombo 04 where we arrange workshops, discussions, lectures, and forums. Our members' fellowship meetings have been held at the premises and the lawn behind has been of tremendous value for these events.

We have been able to invite business professionals and business leaders for our events and conferences. Mr. Vish Govindasamy, FCPM Chairman of the Ceylon Chamber of Commerce was our Chief Guest at the Convocation 2023 where 540 members received their certificates. We also had the Country Manager of Mastercard, Sri Lanka & Maldives, Mr. Sandun Hapugoda, FCPM as the Keynote Speaker. The Chairman of Securities and Exchange Commission of Sri Lanka, Mr. Faizal Salieh, FCPM was our Chief Guest at the Best Management Practices Company Awards 2023. We also with our long-standing relationship with IIM Ahmedabad we had the distinguished presence of Prof. Neharika Vohara, Professor of Organizational Behaviour as the Keynote Speaker for our Annual Management Conference 2023.

CPM Sri Lanka is very grateful to Mastercard for their professional support as the 'Strategic Partner' for all our activities.

This year we had a number of distinguished personnel from the business and professional sectors who were awarded the CPM Sri Lanka Honorary Fellow Membership and the included Mr. Ishara Nanayakkara, Deputy Group Chairman of LOLC Holdings, Mr. A. Ranjith Pandithage, Chairman/Managing Director, Diesel & Motor Engineering PLC, Dr. Sarath de Alwis-Seneviratne, Medical Doctor, CTMH Doctors Hospital, Cayman Islands, Mr. Viraj Dayaratne, President's Counsel (PC), Former Chairman, Securities and Exchange Commission of Sri Lanka, Mr. Manoj Gupta, Former Managing Director of Lanka IOC PLC and Mr. L.B. Wattegedara, Senior Consultant.

Our finances showed great resilience and we have been able to meet the challenges of the economic crisis and come out with success. Our day-to-day activities have been going on and we were able to provide members with varied kinds of programs. Our Governing Council and the Committees with the director and his staff working tirelessly to add value to all our activities and our members with varied programmes.

The membership should be proud that despite difficult encountered your institute has performed extremely well with a turnover of Rs.38.9M and a profit of Rs 12.6 M compared to the previous year's figures of Rs. 25.2 M and Rs 10.2 M respectively.

I thank the members for participating in all our activities and for supporting us to elevate our organization showing the major role played by CPM Sri Lanka also to the business community, and to those in need and the society providing the ability to become a much sought-after organization by young business and management practitioners.

I must mention my appreciation to the Director and his staff for their continuous support and for their selfless commitment to the work that the Governing Council planned. I am confident that they will continue their work which benefits to our institute and our members.

Significant Operational Increases

Throughout our operations we have been conscious of the need to use the minimum resources to obtain the maximum results. Our intention has been to show our members that resources must be used with care. Since the ten principles of the Global Compact of the UN 2004 has highlighted our social responsibilities and especially principles 7-10 have focused on the environment we are keenly aware that we must preserve them for the future.

Therefore, we have been careful with our monthly utilities and our water usage against six staff members and several events and meetings including SME Development Program, Women's Day Celebrations, CPM Sri Lanka Professional Circle, CSR Project of donating dry goods for elderly street sweepers, Inter-Committee and Governing Council gathering, Governing Council and Committee meetings when are held in our office. Our electricity bill is about Rs.10,000/-. Our staff very often have their windows open and electric lamps off. CPM Sri Lanka is fortunate that it has garden space and trees around even though it is situated in a busy area in Colombo 04.

CPM Sri Lanka organizes major events such as Conferences, Convocations, Best Management Practices Company Awards, Research Forums. However, we limit paperwork to the minimum by reusing paper and by not printing every document. Most of our displays are digital. We do not encourage bottled water in plastic bottles. Our committees are aware of the escalation of cost and therefore we have made every attempt to be environmentally friendly. We also attempt to keep the costs of organising events low as possible and to sell our programs to the public as lowest possible rates in comparison to other events held by other organizations. We have also kept our annual membership fees at the same level as those prior to the financial crisis.

A crucial factor about our major programmes we need to emphasis is, that once a programme is launched, it will continue to be in the annual calendar. As time goes on, the programme develops a life of its own and develops quite successfully. so that the latter would be more comprehensive and wider in its scope.

In our programs we draw attention of our members to environmental pollution such as the polyethene menace on land and sea. We also show them methods of reducing paper and office supplies at work.

We are pleased that our stringent operational activities have enabled us to show a surplus of Rs.12,675,914/- this year against Rs.10,282,337/- which is a 23.27% increase over the surplus after tax over last year.

Our surplus has been achieved under heavy rise in prices both in products and services. Most of our work is carried out in-house. We only hire technological equipment from providers. We have reduced office travel to a minimum and instead use telecommunication and the computer for our needs.

CPM Sri Lanka is pleased that awareness of her programs is increasing among the professional classes. This is evident from increased membership and the increased attendance at all our events.

Our Value Proposition

'Our Value Proposition' in the annual report outlines the unique benefits and advantages that set our Institute apart in the market. They highlight the customer-centric attributes that drive our members, students, and corporate client's satisfaction and loyalty. By articulating our value proposition, we aim to showcase the reasons why our offerings are superior, foster a strong market position, and ultimately drive sustainable growth in our activities.

MEMBERSHIP

This year we saw an increase in membership in our roll off those who displayed their value and their capability in their organizations. They engaged in the many programs the Institute arranged on Economic and Financial themes, on Human Resources, Legal issues, Leadership, and Governance debates. These programs are timely and relevant for practitioners, and they attract managers who wish to become members.

Since our Institute provides membership for all professionals, we noticed that members from diverse professions have joined our organization. Once they join us, they continue to remain within the organization.

Our retention of members is increasing at an increasing rate.

The Institute provides members with several benefits such as annual international management conference, credit cards, discounts, free programs, fellowship evenings, journals, blogs, and networking. Our intention is to continually add new benefits to our members.

CPM Best Management Practices Company Awards 2023

Following the success of our inaugural awards scheme for BEST MANAGEMENT PRACTICES last year, we were able to continue the program this year too with some value additions and more company participation with many improvements. Which good sign shows many have accepted our effort to encourage good management in this Country.

We received very positive feedback from companies as well as from the event participants for both the judging and selection process. The awards were recognizing Sri Lankan public and private sector Companies/Institutions for their organizational growth and success. The awards endorsed the best practices in the Management of Companies during 2022 while recognizing their leadership, policies and strategies, people management, partnerships & resources, processes, and performances.

The awards provided a distinct framework for management teams to revisit and challenge themselves against their respective Companies/Institutions. The awards gave confidence to winning companies/Institutions to proudly make a professional appearance in business society and across the world.

Both local and foreign business organization (with 30% local equity) that operates its business in Sri Lanka in the past 36 months prior to the date of application were eligible to apply.

For the competition companies submitted their synopsis containing 1,500-2,000 words according to the given template by CPM Sri Lanka covering six comprehensive area.

CPM Sri Lanka 10th International Management Conference 2023

The Institute of Chartered Professional Managers (CPM) of Sri Lanka concluded the 10th CPM Sri Lanka International Management Conference 2023 on 16th March 2023 at the Galadhari Hotel. The conference's theme was Rebooting Management: Reimagine and Redesign. The 2023 Conference explored this domain. It invited members to reboot the management practices and move towards reimagining and redesigning for better outputs and outcomes.

The conference was organized physically, and it was full house participation. Founder and President of CPM Sri Lanka, Prof. Lakshman R. Watawala, gave opening remarks. Specialist in behavioural science and currently working as Professor in the Organizational Behaviour area at IIM Ahmedabad, India, Prof. Neharika Vohra presented her keynote address on 'Courageous Organizations: The Role of the Leader and the Team in Creating Psychological Safety'. The Chief Guest was Hon. Karu Jayasuriya, Patron of CPM Sri Lanka and Former Speaker of Parliament of Sri Lanka. Dr. Samantha Rathnayake, a governing council member of CPM Sri Lanka, and a Senior Management Consultant from the Postgraduate Institute of Management of the University of Sri Jayewardenepura, Sri Lanka, was the head of technical design at the conference and made the closing remarks.

Management is an efficient, down-to-earth activity. There are no profound truths about it to be discovered, and there are no hidden secrets to be uncovered about how to do it. Management is a simple activity involving people and resources to produce goods or services. It is multidimensional, dynamic, and intangible. Effective organizations can withstand change disturbance and disruption and have the ability, capacity, and competence to face disruption. The message of the CPM Sri Lanka is always to alert members and Corporate Bodies to the need for the latest cutting-edge, advanced revolutionary thinking in management. People and companies are subject to continuous change. Unless managers learn to meet change and harness it for the good of the house in general and productivity, they will be fighting a losing battle.

Organizations are compelled to get ready for continuous change. This requires shifting focus away from rigid operational systems, processes, and practices that were built for long periods of relative stability. Leaders and managers have an implicit responsibility to radically change their management style in line with changing demands. It is not the case in every institution. To make a lasting change we must properly prepare before rebooting our management style. Do you ever wish management practice had a reboot button like a computer where you can shut it down and restart it if something goes wrong? Rebooting our practice, similarly, does not mean closing the door on our practice or selling it and moving to a new domain just to get a change. This thought may have crossed our minds from time to time, and some practitioners have gone ahead and done just that. Instead of a complete “restart” reboot, maybe what you are looking for is a “revive or give fresh impetus” type of reboot.

Session one focused on rebooting and reimagining of Government and Public Sector, Business, and Strategy. This theme is examined in line with state sector practices and outcomes and macro-economic perspectives and navigating the political and economic revival process. Adopting effective business and strategic practices to Sri Lankan organizations. The session was Chaired and Moderated by Ms. Gayani Punchihewa, Head of Marketing, Digital & Integrated Media of Wijeya Newspapers Ltd. One speaker was Dr. P.G.K. Harischandra, Director of the Economic Research Department at Central Bank of Sri Lanka delivered key insights into reboot and reimagining of Government and Public Sector; Macro Economic Perspectives whereas the other speaker was Mr. Hikaam Khalid, Vice President/Head of Freight Forwarding Saudi Arabia who covered reboot and reimagine Business and Strategic Thinking. Panellists were Mr. Asanga Ranasinghe, Chairman, Sri Lanka Standard Institution, and Mr. Nalin Edirisinghe, CEO Designate, Pan Asia Banking Corporation PLC.

The post-lunch session concentrated on rebooting and redesigning Small and Medium Enterprises, Entrepreneurship, and Corporate Thinking. Area cover on reviewing SME interventions and strengthening entrepreneurship and intrapreneurship. Synergizing the novel ways of thinking and applications in corporate thinking to run effective institutions. Dr. Ravi Bamunusinghe, Chairman of SLSME and Visiting Faculty of PIM, University of Sri Jayewardenepura chaired and moderated the session. Panellists were Food Science and Quality expert Dr. Winston Liyanaarachchi, Director, Nutrinnovate Australia; entrepreneur and corporate personality Mr. Mithila Wegapitiya, Director/Chief Marketing Officer, POTENZA ANZ, New Zealand, Executive Director-People & Brand at LAUGFS Holdings Pvt Ltd; digital payment expert Ms. Mahesha Amarasuriya, Director-Account Management, Mastercard Sri Lanka. Also, Prof. Neharika Vohra who was the keynote speaker joined the panel discussion and added a lot of colour.

As a part of the conference, five best management practices company awards top five selected presentations chosen from 2023 awardees were showcased. Presentations were made by the senior representatives of Ansel Lanka, Elpitiya Plantations, DFCC Bank, LOLC Finance, and 99X company. This session was facilitated by the Chairman of the panel of judges of the CPM Best Management Company Awards 2023 competition.

In parallel to the conference, the “Best Management Practices Company Awards 2023” was organized by the CPM Sri Lanka recognizing Sri Lankan public and private sector Companies/Institutions for their organizational growth and success. The awards endorsed the best practices in the Management of Companies during 2022 while recognizing their leadership, policies, and strategies, people management, partnerships & resources, processes, and performances. The awards provided a distinct framework for management teams to revisit and challenge themselves against their respective companies/institutions. The awards will give confidence to winning companies/institutions to proudly make a professional appearance in business society and across the world. This is an invitation for other companies to come forward for writing a new management story next time. Sri Lankan companies were recognized under special recognition, best management practices, excellence in best management practices categories, and finally, overall gold, silver, and bronze winners selected by a technical judging panel of judges. At the end of the awards night, Mr. Dishan Arsakularathna, Director CPM Sri Lanka proposed the vote of thanks.

CPM Sri Lanka Annual Convocation 2023

The Annual Convocation 2023 of CPM Sri Lanka was held on Tuesday, 10th January 2023 at BMICH, under the distinguished presence of Mr. Vish Govindasamy, Chairman of The Ceylon Chamber of Commerce, Group Managing Director of Sunshine Holdings PLC, Mr. Sandun Hapugoda, Country Manager, Sri Lanka & Maldives, Mastercard and Prof. Lakshman R. Watawala, Founder and President of CPM Sri Lanka.

Mr. Hapugoda drew attention to choices leaders will have to make to drive digital acceleration and leadership practices in times of anxiety in his keynote speech. Mr. Govindasamy as Chief Guest spoke on Private Sector solutions to overcome the present Economic Crisis in Sri Lanka.

The Certificates of Membership were awarded to all successful applicants who were conferred Fellow (FCPM), Member (MCPM), and Associate (ACPM) status at this ceremony. This year saw the highest number receiving membership of the Institute. There were 42 receiving fellow status, 189 receiving member status, 301 receiving associate status. In a short span of 14 years, The Institute of Chartered Professional Managers of Sri Lanka has passed many milestones and has won the hearts of over 3000 members from every profession.

A noteworthy feature of this year's convocation was the recognition given to the graduates who qualified at our own examination structure which was introduced three years ago. There were five candidates who received associate status at the convocation. One of them, Ms. Irfana Ahmed who was the best candidate in the batch spoke of her experience in obtaining the qualification.

Honorary Fellow of CPM Sri Lanka

The Institute recognizes eminent personalities who have made a significant contribution to the Country and reached a higher position in the practice of Management by making them "Honorary Fellow."

At this year's Convocation on the 10th January 2023, the Institute honored Mr. Ranjith Pandithage, Chairman/ Managing Director, Diesel & Motor Engineering PLC, Mr. Viraj Dayaratne, President's Counsel (PC), Former Chairman, Securities and Exchange Commission of Sri Lanka, Mr. L.B. Wattegedara, Senior Consultant of CMA Sri Lanka, Dr. Sarath de Alwis-Seneviratne, Medical Doctor, CTMH Doctors Hospital, Cayman Islands and Mr. Manoj Gupta, Former MD, Lanka IOC.

A special Ceremony was organized at the CPM Sri Lanka Secretariat for Mr. Ishara Nanayakkara, Deputy Chairman of LOLC Holdings to confer his honorary Fellow membership.

International Women's Day 2023

Celebration of CPM Sri Lanka

With special emphasis on our lady members

#EmbraceEquity; Role of a Professional Woman

It was indeed happy to see the enthusiasm of our lady members who took part in the International Women's Day (March 8) celebrations, a well-attended event organized by the Institute which attempted to recognize women and promote diversity and inclusion.

The Institute of Chartered Professional Managers of Sri Lanka is encouraging its members to recognize women with a uniqueness in a professional setting that says no to discrimination, biases, and inequalities. To commemorate the day, CPM Sri Lanka invited all its lady members to share their experiences and to encourage others to charter new avenues of opportunity for their colleagues. Ms. Gayani Punchihewa, Head of Marketing, Digital and Integrated Media of Wijeya Newspapers Ltd. delivered the Keynote address followed by a meaningful panel discussion. The panel discussion was moderated by the Senior Lecturer of the Faculty of Management & Finance, University of Colombo, Ms. Ruwaiha Razik. The Panel consisted of Ms. Nilanthi Weliwe, Attorney-at-Law, Senior Manager-Legal, Michelin Lanka Pvt. Ltd, Ms. Nishadi Rajapakse, Board Manager, Professional Affairs Board, Sri Lanka Institute of Architects, Ms. Nishamani Rathnayake, Lead Manager, Research and Development, LankaPay Pvt. Ltd., and Ms. Pramodya Senanayake, Manager, Packet Core Operations, Mobitel (Pvt.) Ltd. They shared some valuable insights from their professional experience. The full house event was followed by the formation of a professional Women's Chapter. Ms. Gayani Punchihewa was chosen to lead this chapter for a year as the Chairperson and Ms. Ruwaiha Razik was appointed as the Deputy Chairperson.

Formation of CPM Sri Lanka Professional Women's Chapter

In 2023 March CPM Sri Lanka formed a Professional Women's Chapter with Ms. Gayani Punchihewa as Chairperson and Ms. Ruwaiha Raizk as the Vice Chairperson. The Institute of Chartered Professional Managers of Sri Lanka is focusing on empowering women in a professional setting through adequate leadership and guidance to enhance their knowledge and skills for the betterment of their careers as well as to improve their contribution to the economic growth prospects.

A special event for Council and Committee Members

The Governing Council decided to invite all its members and the members of all committees of which there were sixty to an evening of networking at the secretariat on 27th September 2022.

The council felt that they had not had sufficient interaction with all the committee members. CPM Sri Lanka has eight committees to steer the various departments they do not often have opportunities to meet and discuss events as a group. An evening fellowship therefore was an ideal opportunity for them to share ideas and integrate with other committees.

Gentlemen at the Gentlemen's Game; The day companies stopped working and started batting

There were 57 matches played by 28 teams battled under two categories of Corporate and Academic Institutes for the coveted CPM Cricket Challenge Trophy organized by the Institute for the fourth time.

SALOTA International Pvt Limited clinched the Trophy defeating Certis Lanka Group at the Corporate Category and AAT Members Team beat ICBT Campus at the Academic Institutes Category securing their Champion Trophy for the 2nd consecutive year. We wish all teams who took part in the cricket tournament and the best in their sports activities. There will be another opportunity next year for those who didn't win this time.

The event was held on Saturday, 28th January 2023 at Shalika Ground, Narahenpita.

CPM Inaugural Founder's Day

It was our great pleasure to celebrate the Inaugural Founder's Day of CPM Sri Lanka on 10th October 2022 in Colombo with a distinguished gathering of members present.

It is now fourteen years since our Founder, Prof. Lakshman R. Watawala inaugurated the Institute of Chartered Professional Managers of Sri Lanka on the 10th of October 2008.

An honorary fellow member Mr. Upali Ratnayake, paid a tribute to Prof. Watawala. Members presented him with the President's insignia.

A pictorial presentation of the CPM Sri Lanka journey was screened for the members.

Hon. Karu Jayasuriya, Patron of CPM Sri Lanka graced this occasion and his oration on 'Leadership, Governance and Accountability to Overcome the Present Political, Economic and Social Crises' was well received by the members.

Colour Flash Painting Competition for Children

An occasion to encourage young persons in their talent to create and paint through a competition CPM Sri Lanka invited all school age students who want to experiment with colours to send their work to us.

The event witnessed the overwhelming participation of children. The Institute selected the winners upon careful evaluation with an independent judging panel. The Institute chose the best paintings among nearly 1,000 and awarded certificates, medals, cash prizes and gifts to all winners.

The Institute encouraged all children to engage in creative exercises to identify their hopes and dreams of the future. It allows complete self-expression and supports their creativity and innovative ideas expressed through art/drawing.

The Awarding ceremony was held on Saturday, 27th August 2022 as an online event for the convenience of participants due to travel and economic constraints in the country.

SME Development Programme

Our pilot project organized by the Institute for Small and Medium-sized Enterprises (SMEs) was a vital step towards fortifying the Sri Lankan economy. The program designed with a focus on upskilling, this initiative aims to empower SMEs with the essential knowledge and tools needed to thrive in a rapidly evolving business landscape. The Institute invited 25 selected entrepreneurs among 450 applicants.

This pilot project exemplifies our commitment to nurturing the backbone of our economy, ensuring that SMEs continue to play a pivotal role in shaping a prosperous future for Sri Lanka.

CPM Sri Lanka Secretariat

In the past year, our organization underwent a transformative shift by relocating to a new and dynamic office space that has proven to be a cornerstone in facilitating our members' diverse range of activities. This environment has seamlessly integrated into our operational ethos. Our relocated office has not only become a hub for hosting study programs that empower our members with knowledge, but it has also emerged as a focal point for committee and council meetings that encourage strategic discussions and thoughtful decision-making. Moreover, the space has adeptly accommodated professional gatherings, fostering networking opportunities and bolstering our industry connections. As we reflect on this remarkable transition, it is evident that our new office space has not only met expectations but has exceeded them, underscoring its pivotal role in driving our organization's growth and success throughout the year.

CPM Management Research Forum 2022

CPM Sri Lanka as a national professional body for promoting best practices in management organized the CPM Management Research Forum “Achieving Business and Institutional Growth through Insightful Research” on Thursday, 15th December 2022 at BMICH. The Scope of the forum was to create a platform for business, government, not for profit organisations and other institutions to share their key management insights for the betterment of future revival and growth prospects. All the professionals and research scholars/practitioners in Sri Lanka were invited to present their research findings under two main categories as Corporate and Industry Case Studies (I) and Applied Research Papers/Projects (II) on pre-determined topics of interest.

Following the Initial submissions of the papers the selection process consisted of two rounds; Blind Reviews as the 1st Round and Virtual Presentation Evaluation Session as the 2nd Round. The best 05 papers from each category were invited to showcase their papers on the event day.

All selected full papers with abstracts were reviewed through a double-blind reviewing process by a scientific panel of experts. The e-version of the paper publication is available at CPM Sri Lanka website.

Member Annual Get-together #FIESTA22: Managers Magical Moment

Following several hazards which prevented us from free movement, CPM Sri Lanka attempted to re-unite our members in friendship and fellowship by organizing a fellowship event on 02nd December 2022 at Trace Expert City, Colombo.

It was a time where our members were able to interact with each other and to relax and enjoy an evening of light entertainment and music.

CPM Professionals' Circle

The inaugural meeting of the CPM Professionals' Circle was held on 25th November 2022 from 06.00 pm

09.00 pm at the CPM Secretariat with the intention of inviting Professionals and Entrepreneurs to make presentations about their ideas, innovations, and processes on one platform. This was another initiative under the Members' Services and Engagement Committee.

The participants benefited through exposure to new ideas and products while they helped each other through their resources and network.

The Objectives of the CPM Professionals' Circle are;

- Platform to gather members to discuss their business interests
 - Opportunity to Assist each other through their own network
 - Share specializations
 - Gather updated business knowledge
- 20 participants attended the meeting.

CPM Book Week 2023 (21st to 24th March 2023)

The CPM Book Week 2023 program was another initiative under the Member Services and Engagement Committee of the CPM Sri Lanka to collect management and related books from our members to build the library at our office premises at No.11, Melbourne Avenue, Colombo 04.

These books will be of special use to our younger members in their examinations and other related matters.

Many of our members donated useful materials that they no longer need to their library what they do not need will be of great service to another.

International Workers' Day 2022 (May Day) celebrations

In line with the International Workers' Day 2022 (May Day) celebrations, the Member Services and Engagement Committee of CPM Sri Lanka organized an event to donate a bag of essentials for selected elderly cleaning/janitorial Municipal Street cleaners.

The Institute recognised them and their essential work which very often goes unnoticed.

Be a part of the solution, not the pollution

A big thanks to members who joined us in the successful CPM Sri Lanka Sustainable Beach Clean-up Program. This was our effort and contribution to Sri Lanka's ESG initiative.

We are now planning a comprehensive programme and we shall invite you to join it and further enhance our desire for corporate social responsibility. Many appreciated the initiative a kickstart given by the Member Services and Engagement

Committee of CPM Sri Lanka assisting to protect and preserve our coastlines.

This was an extended message from our first initiative taken at CPM Convocation 2020 awakening all our professionals about ocean pollution under the theme of "Protect the Oceans: Our source of Oxygen" toward building a larger campaign against marine pollution in the country.

CPM Cricket Team makes Strong first appearance

In their first appearance, the CPM Sri Lanka made a strong impression by being runner-up in the tournament and also being declared Best Batsman and Best Bowler of the Tournament.

We proved our genuine strength by giving a super battle to most big names and qualifying undefeated to enter the final but ended up as Runners-up with an 8-ball unusual final match. Our heartfelt congratulations to the champion team.

Our Teammates Dilan Samaraweera was the Best Batsman and Gayan Radishka was the Best Bowler with two hat-tricks in the tournament.

Hats off to all our players who kept the CPM Sri Lanka flag higher. They played a superior game and it was only the rain that spoilt some of their batting.

Human Capital Infrastructure & Staff Development, Commitment

Our Staff

CPM Sri Lanka manages with a very small staff of only six. But they live and work together as one because they understand the commitment they have undertaken. We do not encourage any social or class distinction among the staff. Therefore, the person who maintains the office and the person who liaises with members enjoy their social life as equals. However, each knows his or her station. In outside events no one will be able to distinguish the kind of work each does.

They engage in helping one another, For example when a former employee of the sister organization CMA Sri Lanka needed a wheelchair, they were quick to find one and present it to him. Similarly, when a senior Governing Council member was hospitalized, they performed religious rights at the temple. When the staff is taken out occasionally as a reward for their good work all sit together and enjoy the meal like equals. Working conditions in the office are satisfactory and often they are on the lawn behind the office exercising to relieve their bodies. They have made the office beautiful by introducing plants and pictures, as to make it homely and attractive to visitors.

All take an interest in keeping the place looking good. There is no separation of duties, rather everyone engages in whatever task that has to be done. This leads to further bonding between the staff. It also helps in conservation of resources because they do the maximum of tasks with the minimum of resources. This report will show that our Director, Mr. Dilshan Arsakularathna, has completed all the proposals of the Governing Council with the assistance of his staff.

Other benefits include opportunities for the staff to take part in programs that we arrange for their personal development. Also, in personal events of our staff, CPM Sri Lanka always contributes towards them.

Towards a Circular Economy

In this year's annual report, we take immense pride in showcasing our commitment to Environmental, Social, and Governance (ESG) initiatives. As part of our sustainability efforts, we have focused on addressing the issue of polyethylene waste through innovative projects. Our team has produced engaging and informative videos and files to raise awareness about the impact of plastic waste on the environment and the importance of responsible waste management. Furthermore, we have taken a meaningful step towards environmental conservation by giving plants as tokens of appreciation and take-home gifts for our resource persons and participants. By promoting green practices and nurturing a culture of environmental responsibility, we are dedicated to making a positive impact on the planet while ensuring our ESG goals are met with purpose and determination.

While reaching remarkable milestones and adding more value to the professionals, We CPM Sri Lanka take natural capital management seriously. For the betterment of the environment, we pursue our strategies in alignment with green concepts.

Digital Transformation will end the unnecessary paperwork and will promote the well-being of the environment. It also helps us to save storage space, time, and money through an agile system. A recent study shows if we reduce font size by one point when we get paper prints can save up to 20.7 billion paper usage as a country in a year. So as a responsible Institute we always encourage our professionals to use smaller fonts and limit taking printouts or take fewer of them which eventually leads to reforestation.

Adapting to the great three rules of protecting the environment we are able to improve the environmental impact of our day-to-day operations. The staff believe that this is a great way to join the eco-conscious revolution. Taking steps to reduce our carbon footprint and protect natural resources through recycling help us to draw a considerable number of new members who are environmentally minded.

Reduce / Reuse / Recycle

Tons of Polythene and Plastic waste litter our coastline every year. When it ends up in the ocean, it leads to oxygenless dead zones. We CPM Sri Lanka, resist marine pollution, determine not to throw waste into the ocean and act as an example for accountable organizations which can help protect and restore our oceans for our next generations. We use themes like 'Save the Nature' and 'Protect the Oceans; Our Source of Oxygen' in our annual convocations to share these messages and which will gather more individuals around us to make this world a better place.

Our Resilience before Health, Financial and Political Stress

Running right through our annual reports we see a trend of remarkable resilience and strength before unprecedented calamities that overtook the Country. Our Governing Council and members faced all disaster with equanimity and calm. We continued all our programs unabated though at times we engaged the services at zoom technology.

Despite financial contractions members continued to support the Institute through their annual subscriptions. The Institute in no way was handicapped for funds. In fact, our finances improved by 23.27%. Even though finance is not an indicator of success, the fact that members took part in all our programs, and we were able to bring to them as we promised, the latest information to keep them on the cutting-edge of knowledge was the hallmark of the Institute's progress.

The governing council took a great risk in investing in new premises at Melbourne Place, Colombo 04. This was an additional expense that had to be met. Not only did this move pay dividends it also enhanced our brand and image in the business community. The institute was able to find the required funds to complete refurbishment and the establishment of the work routine to serve the members.

A move of this nature involves a wide range of work and expertise. Our Governing Council was not given in to easy solutions which at times are costly and unmanageable, instead we took the path of completing all work in-house as opposed to outsourcing. This decision enabled us to save a formidable sum which we were able to spend on necessary equipment such as computers, and zoom facilities.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

TO THE MEMBERS OF THE INSTITUTE OF CHARTERED PROFESSIONAL MANAGERS OF SRI LANKA

Report on the Audit of the Financial Statements

Opinion

We have audited the financial statements of The Institute of Chartered Professional Managers of Sri Lanka, ("the Institute"), which comprise the statement of financial position as at 31st March 2023, and statements of income and expenditure, statement of changes in accumulated fund, and statement of cash flows for the year then ended, and notes to the financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies.

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements give a true and fair view of the financial position of the Institute as at 31st March 2023, and of its financial performance and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with Sri Lanka Accounting Standard for Small and Medium-sized Entities ("SLFRS for SMEs").

Basis of Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with Sri Lanka Auditing Standards (SLAuSs). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Institute in accordance with Code of Ethics issued by CA Sri Lanka (Code of Ethics) and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the Code of Ethics. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Other Information

Governing council ("the Council") is responsible for other information. These financial statements do not comprise other information.

Our opinion on the financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

Responsibilities of the Council and those Charged with Governance for the Financial Statements

Council is responsible for the preparation of financial statements that give a true and fair view in accordance with SLFRS for SMEs, and for such internal control as the Council determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, the Council is responsible for assessing the Institute's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Institute or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing the Institute's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SLAuSs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

A further description of the auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements is located at Sri Lanka Accounting and Auditing Standards website at: <http://slaasc.com/auditing/auditorsresponsibility.php>. This description forms part of our auditor's report.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. REPORTING ENTITY

1.1 Domicile and legal form

The Institute of Chartered Professional Managers of Sri Lanka (“the Institute”) has been registered as a specially authorized society under section 3 (b) of Societies Ordinance (Chapter 123), on 27 February 2009. The registered office of the Institute is situated at No.11, Melbourn Avenue, Colombo 04.

“With effect from 26 March 2019, the name of the Institute was changed from The Institute of Certified Professional Managers to The Institute of Chartered Professional Managers of Sri Lanka.”

1.2 Principle activities and nature of operations

The Institute was formed to provide a professional qualification in management, known as The Institute of Chartered Professional Managers of Sri Lanka (CPM Sri Lanka), by conducting educational programs, providing practical training in private and public sector entities and establishing a link between the private and public sectors for the advancement of professional management.

2. BASIS OF PREPERATION

(a) Statement of compliance

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the Sri Lanka Accounting Standard for Small and Medium- sized Entities (SLFRS for SMEs).

(b) Basis of measurement

The financial statements have been prepared on the historical cost basis. No adjustments have been made for inflationary factors in the financial statements.

(c) Functional and presentation currency

These financial statements are presented in Sri Lankan Rupees, which is the Institute’s functional currency.

3. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The accounting policies listed below have been applied consistently to all periods presented in these financial statements.

(a) Equipment

(i) Recognition and measurement

Cost includes expenditure that is directly attributable to the acquisition of the asset.

Gains/losses on disposal of equipment are determined by comparing the proceeds from disposal with the carrying amount of the equipment and are recognized net within “Other Income” in the statement or income and expenditure.

(ii) Depreciation

Depreciation is recognised in the statement of income and expenditure and accumulated fund on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful lives of each part of an item of property, plant and equipment on a pro rata basis.

The estimated useful lives for the current and comparative periods are as follows.

	Years
Furniture	5
Computers	5
Telephone	5

Depreciation Methods, useful lives and residual values are revived at each reporting date.

(b) Receivables

Receivables are carried at anticipated realizable value.

(c) Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents comprise cash in hand, demand deposit and short-term highly liquid investments which are readily convertible to known amounts of cash and are subjected to insignificant risks of change in value. For the purpose of the statement of cash flows, cash and cash equivalents comprise cash in hand, deposits held at call with banks.

Statement of cash flow

Statement of cash flow has been prepared using the indirect method.

(d) Liabilities and provisions

Liabilities are recognized in the statement of financial position when there is a present obligation as a result of past events, the settlement of which is expected to result in an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits. Obligations payable on demand or within one year of the reporting date are treated as current liabilities in the statement of financial position. Liabilities payable after one year from the reporting date are treated as non-current liabilities in the statement of financial position.

A provision is recognized if, as a result of a past event, the Institute has a present legal or constructive obligation that can be estimated reliably, and it is probable that an outflow of economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation.

(e) Taxation(i) Income taxation

The provision for income tax is based on the elements of income tax and expenditures as reported in the financial statements and computed in accordance with the Inland Revenue Act No. 24 of 2017 and amendments thereto.

(ii) Deferred tax

Deferred tax is recognized on temporary differences arising between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts in the financial statements. Deferred tax is not accounted for if it arises from initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction other than a business combination that at the time of the transaction affects neither accounting nor taxable profit or loss. Deferred tax is determined using tax rates that have been enacted at the reporting period end date and are expected to apply when the related deferred tax asset is realized or the deferred income tax liability is settled.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to offset current tax assets against current tax liabilities and when the deferred tax assets and liabilities relate to income taxes levied by the same taxation authority.

(f) Employee benefits(i) Defined contribution plans

Obligations to defined contribution plans are recognized as an expense in the statement of income and expenditure when incurred. The Institute contributes 12% and 3% of gross emoluments of employees as Provident Fund and Trust Fund respectively.

(g) Revenue recognition

Revenue from annual subscriptions from members, registration fee, Regional management conference income, seminar income, advertisement income, interest income, and sponsorship income are measured at the fair value of the consideration received and to the extent that it is possible that the economic benefits will flow to the Institute and that it can be measured reliably.

(h) Expenditure

All expenditure incurred in the operations of the Institute and in maintaining the capital assets in a state of efficiency has been charged to income when arriving at the Institute's surplus for the year.

(i) Comparative information

Where necessary, comparative figures have been rearranged to conform to the current year's presentation.

(j) Events occurring after the reporting date

All material post reporting events have been considered and where appropriate adjustments or disclosures have been made in respective notes to the financial statements.

(k) Commitments and contingencies

Contingencies are possible assets or obligations that arise from a past event and would be confirmed only on the occurrence or non-occurrence of uncertain future events, which are beyond the Institute's control.

Contingent liabilities and commitments are disclosed in Notes to the Financial Statements.
